Upcoming HEART*play* Events: November/December 2021

Hugo the horse visits HEART*play*!

Saturday, November 6th 10am at HEART*play*
526 Boston Post Road, Wayland, MA 01778

Hugo is a specially trained therapy horse who will visit with our friends at Horse Sensability during our regularly scheduled Saturday, in person HEART*play* groups on November 6th. We hope you will join us to meet Hugo, hear his story, and experience the fun and healing animals can bring. No special registration needed.

CAMP HEART*play*

Thursday, November 11th 9:30am-1pm at
The Academy of Physical and Social Development,
425R Watertown St. Newton, 02458

A one-day family camp experience that will include fun activities, opportunities to connect with peers, and a family remembrance ceremony. Children and teens of all ages and abilities and their adult family members are welcome. Sign up by Nov. 1!

Cocoa, Comfort, & Conversation: HEART*play* Holiday Workshops

Tuesday November 16th & Tuesday December 7
7-8pm on zoom

This workshop will provide support and resources for grieving families and include break-out sessions for adults, children, and teens. We will learn practical, creative ways to honor and remember those who have died and to take care of ourselves and each other during this special season. Please join us for a warm evening of support and connection. Families are welcome to attend one or both sessions. Sign up by Nov. 8 / Nov. 29!

As always, all programs are offered at no cost to all participants.
Please note that on-going HEART*play groups will continue to be offered as scheduled. We hope you will join us for one or more of these special events!*

Registration Required. Register for one or more events here:
